Repository: Nancy Staub Puppetry Research Library

Center for Puppetry Arts

1404 Spring St NW

Atlanta, GA 30309

Abstract: Contains information on puppeteers, puppet companies, and puppetry traditions from around the world.

Administrative Information

Provenance: This collection contains materials collected by the Center for Puppetry Arts (CPA) since 1980 to the present. It also contains materials donated by Nancy Lohman Staub to the CPA.

Processing History: This collection is an active research file that continues to grow. It contains both Nancy Lohman Staub's personal archives and material contributed by the Center for Puppetry Arts (CPA). Until 2013, the collection was processed by CPA museum staff into file drawers by topic or person and the majority of the Nancy Lohman Staub collection was unprocessed. In 2013, the Staub collection began processing into the existing CPA files. All documents were rehoused into archival boxes and a finding aid was made. This collection is still being processed and will continue to grow.

Copyright Status: Some material may be copyrighted or restricted. It is the patron's obligation to determine and satisfy copyright or other case restrictions when publishing or otherwise distributing materials found in the collections.

Access and Restrictions: The records of the Nancy Lohman Staub Archives collection are open to research by appointment only. The library and archives are open Monday-Friday from 9:00 to 3:00, it is suggested that researchers call a week in advance to set up an appointment.

Preferred Citation: Folder Title, Box Number, Collection Title, Nancy Staub Puppetry Research Library, Center for Puppetry Arts.

Scope and Content Note: The Nancy Lohman Staub Collection contains materials that span from 1871 to the present, with the bulk dated 1960 to the present. The collection is divided into eight series, including: Africa, Asia, Europe, North and Central America, Oceania, South America, Museums and Exhibitions, and Television and Film. Due to its global scope, the collection contains materials in a variety of languages, with English being the most predominant. Other languages represented include: French, Spanish, Russian, German, Portuguese, Italian, Czech, Chinese, Japanese, and Vietnamese. The collection contains materials on puppet companies, puppeteers, and puppetry traditions from around the world. The collection chiefly consists of photographs, newspaper and magazine articles, show programs, and advertisements/publicity materials (flyers, season guides, postcards, etc.). It also contains minimal correspondence between puppeteers and Nancy Lohman Staub or CPA staff.

Organization of the Papers: This collection is arranged in ten series. The first six series are organized alphabetically by continent. Individual boxes are organized alphabetically by country then topic. The Museums and Exhibits series is organized by venue in alphabetical order and if a venue is not listed, the exhibition title is used. Television and Film is organized by title in alphabetical order. Puppet Types is organized by topic matter in alphabetical order. The series are:
