

Virtual Field Trip Experiences

2020-2021

Invite experienced digital learning educators into your classroom to support your virtual learning journey!

The Center for Puppetry Arts is proud to offer virtual versions of our popular arts and arts education programming that meet your new and ever-changing scheduling, learning experience, lesson plan and budgetary requirements.

Whatever your program needs, we have got you covered. Synchronous or asynchronous. Recorded or live. Thirty minutes, an hour, or a specialized learning unit length. Literacy, science, social studies, history, math or fine arts. Grades preK-12. Representing twenty-two years of award-winning Digital Learning programming, the Center's puppet shows and workshops are the perfect virtual field trip for classroom and home learning! We look forward to supporting your learning journey through the magic of puppetry arts!

Please note that while we are not currently offering virtual Museum programming, our Worlds of Puppetry Museum is open with limited capacity to ensure safe social distancing

Special Workshops in the Art of Puppetry Virtual and On-Demand

These live interactive workshops that explore the magic of puppetry allow participants to celebrate creativity, global culture, theatre history, teambuilding, communication and the intersection of all fine arts. Offerings include:

Preschool Puppetry
Playshops

Puppet Manipulation
101

Puppetry as Theatre
Art

Storytime Pop-In

Also available: Tales Told Through Puppetry (Teacher Professional Development Workshop), Puppet + STEM = Science Magic! and Puppet POW! video collections. Artist Residencies are also available!

Multi-Experience Virtual Field Trips

Customized experiences can be created that combine our shows, workshops and tours! Enjoy a video puppet show and follow it up with a live instructor-led Create-A-Puppet Workshop that features a character from the show. Combine a live curriculum-based workshop on a geographical area with a live post-show “behind the scenes” question/answer session with Center artists after watching a video puppet show. The sky’s the limit—we’re happy to work with you to create the perfect virtual field trip that meets your needs.

Pricing and Scheduling Options

A variety of scheduling options are available to provide the ideal student and purchasing experience. Consider block booking at the district or school level to provide content consistency for a large number of students (with deep discounts), or at the grade or classroom level to provide personal, individualized arts-infused learning (with multiple-program discounts for grade-level purchases). Programs generally range between 45-60 minutes, but can be customized to support any class/learning unit length. We’re proud to extend group discounts to ALL school bookings

Program Delivery Options

We’re delighted to be able to offer program delivery in whatever way you and your students or colleagues learn best!

- Video on demand experience (via Vimeo): pre-recorded puppet shows and Puppet POW! video collections
- Live and interactive online experience: puppet shows, curriculum-based workshops, Create-A-Puppet Workshops™ and puppetry workshops
- Live in-person experience (select programs ONLY! contact-free, with no supply sharing and with health and safety precautions in place): Preschool Puppetry Playshops, Puppetry As Theatre Art, Tales Told Through Puppetry (Teacher Professional Development Workshop)

For more information about each offering (program description, suggested age/grade range, program capacities, themes, curriculum and standards, length, scheduling and delivery options and pricing) visit puppet.org.
